Why Orlando?

• No. 4 fastest growing U.S. city (Forbes, 2018)
• Top 10 “American City of the Future” (fDi Magazine, 2017)
• No. 3 best city to find a new job in U.S. (WalletHub, 2019)
• No. 6 best big city for jobs (Forbes, 2018)
• Highest rate of STEM job growth in the country (Forbes, 2018)
• No. 11 leading metro for prime workforce (Area Development, 2018)
• 28 Orlando companies among fastest growing private companies in U.S. (Inc. 5000, 2018)
• No. 6 best foodie city in U.S. (WalletHub, 2018)

Strong Talent Pipeline

• More than 550,000 students within a 100-mile radius
• No. 38 city with the youngest entrepreneurs (Lending Tree, 2018)
• Home to 35 post-secondary institutions:
  - University of Central Florida | No. 2 largest university in the U.S. | Ranked among the top universities in the world for the number of patents awarded
  - Full Sail University | Recipient of Apple’s “Innovators in Education” Award
  - Rollins College | No. 2 Regional University in the South (U.S. News & World Report, 2019), No. 1 in Leadership and Organizational Development Programs (HR, 2018)
  - Seminole State College of Florida | No. 1 college system in Florida for RN Graduate Licensures | One of the best NCLEX-RN licensure pass rates in the nation
  - Valencia College | No. 1 community college in the nation (Aspen Institute)
  - Lake-Sumter State College voted national learning center of the year (National College Learning Center Association)
• No. 10 U.S. booming college towns (Card Rates, 2018)

Top-Ranked Infrastructure

• Orlando International Airport:
  - No. 1 best of the biggest US airports two years in a row (J.D. Power & Associates North American Satisfaction Study)
• Port Canaveral:
  - World’s 2nd busiest cruise port in the world
• Interstate 4 improvements among the largest public works projects in the U.S.
• No. 3 best U.S. city to drive in (WalletHub, 2018)
• No. 9 best places in America to start a business (Inc., 2018)